Join in the education and advancement of over 6,000 of California's top health occupations students. Professional partnerships can be accomplished in one or more of the following ways:

- Exhibit during the Cal-HOSA Career and College Fair
- Present an educational workshop
- Advertise in the conference Cal-HOSA App
- Contribute to student educational scholarships
- Donate door prize(s), cash, supplies
- Judge an event

Cal-HOSA: Future Health Professionals is offering the opportunity for healthcare partners to participate at the annual State Leadership Conference (SLC). The next event takes place on April 5-7 at the Anaheim Marriott. This conference has an expected attendance of approximately 3,000 students. Cal-HOSA is seeking partners to provide professional, educational, leadership and personal growth opportunities for the Cal-HOSA conference participants.

HOSA is a career technical student organization (CTSO) designed to exclusively serve the needs of students in health occupations and health science education programs. Cal-HOSA is an affiliate of the International HOSA organization, which has a membership of over 200,000 students. The organization prepares secondary and postsecondary students for careers in the healthcare industry through innovative leadership and career development opportunities in their health career programs.

At the Cal-HOSA SLC students participate in motivational general sessions, delegate meetings, health careers competitive events, leadership workshops, and a Grand Awards Ceremony. Scholarships donated by the healthcare community are awarded to members for their educational achievement and leadership development. Event and activity sponsors will be recognized at the general awards ceremonies and given special recognition in the conference Cal-HOSA App.

Cal-HOSA's most outstanding students will advance to represent California at the International Leadership Conference (ILC) in Dallas, TX June 27-30, 2018.

Enclosed is a packet describing the details and various ways to participate in the SLC. Please complete the form and return to Cal-HOSA Headquarters by March 23, 2018 for participation in this exciting event. Should you have any questions, please call Cal-HOSA Headquarters at 661.747.4279 for further information.
